What I hope to learn this summer: I am hoping to grow in my relationship with the Lord. I am hoping to learn more about God's perfect plan. His abundance of grace. His perfect love. I am hoping to learn more about myself and how to surrender each day to Him. I am hoping to learn the joys of community. I am also hoping to learn how to boldly make Christ's name known and how to turn everyday conversations into gospel conversations.

How you can pray for me this summer: I will be praying for boldness and the words to say. I know that God will equip me and I am praying to find rest in that promise. I will also be in prayer for my future after camp. I am praying that the Lord will show and guide me to where or what I am called to after serving this summer.
